LOOK TO THIS DAY

"For yesterday is already a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision; but today, well lived, makes every yesterday a dream of happiness, and every tomorrow a vision of hope—look well, therefore, to this day."

Such is the Salutation of the Dawn.

It is our desire to encourage the young women of our Teachers College who have so earnestly and faithfully given their time and energy to build a foundation for complete living on and off the campus, by which our college girls may find an inspiring and comfortable basis that moulds a permanent character.

There can be no government except t h r o u g h self-control. Through the wise administration of student affairs, under the guidance of the Dean of women, the Student Council has become an efficient force in self-government in college life. To t h e m we dedicate this little book.

WILLIAM R. STRAUGHN.

DEAR FRESHMEN:

You are at the beginning of a College career with high hopes and ambitions. Hold on to them both. Great achievements, fine friendships, excellence of character are better goals than popularity, but they are less easily won. They sometimes demand very hard work and sacrifice but in the end they are more satisfying and more lasting than mere popularity.

We hope you plan to do good work here, and incidentally to enjoy our many good times with us. Your Big Sister and Council members are reliable sources of information and they will help you get acquainted with other students, and with your college and teachers.

I shall meet with you and other Freshmen girls each week, but I should like to have you come to see me at other times to talk over your problems or to ask any questions. I am here to help you, and am much interested in your success and happiness.

Sincerely yours,
VICTORIA FREDERICK.
Dean of Women

Welcome by President of Student Council

Your college days, whether they be of two or four years, will represent days of opportunity and achievement; of scholastic application and social adjustment; days of living with one another in acquaintances that often grow into close and enduring friendships.

During these college days, there are many requirements which we should consider in order to live successfully with those about us. Those most essential are: school citizenship, self-sacrifice, service, happiness, and co-operation.

We hope that in realizing these requirements you will strive to make your college days the best days of your life.

We extend a welcome to you and know that our relationship will be a very happy one.

RUTH HOFFMAN.

The Carontawan

This is the official annual record of our college and of value to every student who claims allegiance to Mansfield.

The name "Carontawan" is taken from the Indian words meaning "The Little Town on the Hill". This title was selected by the first board in 1918 and with unbroken continuation has grown revered by thousands of graduates.

It is strictly a Senior Class project.

Cadence

MANSFIELD, HAIL!

Old Mansfield high upon the eastern hill, Dear Mansfield, hail to thee!
Thy loyal sons and daughters with a will, salute in melody.
We bring a laurel wreath of praise,
And pledge our love thro' all the days;
Our Alma Mater, dear, all hail to thee! Old Mansfield, hail to thee!

The world is better for the beacon light which thou hast shed abroad.
Strong hearts are stronger for the testing fight, That leads men up to God.
In all the varied walks of life, in peaceful paths and stress of strife,
You'll find thy sons and daughters true to thee,
Old Mansfield, hail to thee!

We never can forget the days we've spent within thy hallowed walls.
We'll learn sometime what all your lessons meant when larger duty calls.
For every law and rule of thine is made to fit our life's design.
Our Alma Mater, dear, All hail to thee! Old Mansfield, hail to thee!

The vision that we caught beneath thy spell has opened up the way

To opportunity and serving well upon the King's highway.
We love the memory of thy ways,
Strong lads and lassies fair as fays.
We'll consecrate our lives to truth and thee.
Old Mansfield, hail to thee!

—Dr. Will George Butler,
Class of 1897.

FOOTBALL SONG

Cheer for old State College,
Shout loud and long, that victory
song.
Fight, team, for a touchdown;
Just play the game for Mansfield's
fame
Forward down the field let's go,
With dashes and forward passes;
Fight right through and lay them
low.
Come on, team, and win the game.

Red and Black victorious,
Push on to the goal;
Fight to gain a victory,
Mighty cheers will roll.
Fight! Fight! Fight!
Forward, never faltering.
Ours the goal to gain,
And as we march on to the victory
Cheer for Mansfield's fame.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
(Repeat chorus; end with just one Rah.)

—Donald Baldwin, Class of 1928.

Mansfield Pep

Shout loud and clear a mighty cheer
and shout it with a will,
A school that's great, O Mansfield
State, so high upon the hill.
Come loyally, come joyfully, with lots
of pep and vim;
Let's yell so loud that all the crowd
will know we're out to win.
So-o Rah, Rah, Rah, and Hey, Hey,
Hey;
Mansfield State shall win today,
With lots of pep we'll keep in step,
Come on, gang, let's go!

—Words by Dorothy Gardner, 1933.
—Music by Idella Thomas, 1933.

HILLS

I never loved your plains;
  Your gentle valleys,
Your drowsy country lanes
  And pleached alleys.

I want my hills—the trail
  That scorns the hollow.
Up, up the ragged shale
  Where few will follow.

Up over wooded crest
  And mossy boulder
With strong thigh, heaving chest,
  And swinging shoulder.

So let me hold my way,
  By nothing halted,
Until at close of day,
  I stand exalted.

High on my hills of dream—
  Dear hills that know me!
And then, how fair will seem
  The lands below me.

How pure, at vesper time,
  The far bells chiming!
God, give me hills to climb!
  And strength for climbing!

—Arthur Guiterman.
